CITY RESTS AND

Anniversary of Washington's Sad Financial Statement for Birth Will Be Fittingly Celebrated Today.

Salt Lake is observing the anniversary

Salt Lake is observing the anniversary of Washington's birthday today, commercially and socially. Stores, banks and offices are closed generally throughout the city. Schools are closed and at the different clubs about town scores of private luncheons are being held.

The grade and High school pupils held special exercises yesterday afternoon of a patriotic nature.

At the postoffice the registry, general delivery and inquiry windows will be open between 11 o'clock in the forenoon and 1 o'clock in the afternoon, with the money order window closed all day. Carriers will make one delivery and collection over the entire city. There will be two collections during the day in the business district, besides one hotel delivery and collection at 8 in the evening.

Today the larger markets, both grocery and meat, will be open during the usual business hours. The smaller markets for the most part have decided to close at noon. The wholesale preduce and fruit firms will all celebrate half the day by closing at noon. The fish markets, because of the holiday coming on Friday, the busiest day in the week for them, find that it will be impossible to close.

An unusually large number of entertainments are to be held in different portions of the city tonight. Several character balls are to be given.

WILL PRESENT PLAY.

Pupils of All Hallows College to Ap-

The students of All Hallows college will present a comedy drama in four acts, entitled "The Upstart." at the College hall this evening, in honor of Washington's birthday. The play will be followed by a musical and literary program, participated in by the pupils of the college. The members of the cast are: J. Galligan, B. Quinn, P. Fitzmaurice, J. Hilgard, J. Donnelly, N. Kane, E. Griffin, R. Powers, A. Mahony, R. Kricker, L. Bowman, J. Adam and B. Carollo.

The program follows:

Overture, "Caliph of Bagdad"....Boildieu College orchestra.

"The Upstart," act I. Scene—A Parlor at Jordan's.

College band. Scene 1-A garden Piano solo by Joseph Adams.

TO THE WOMAN

Who does not know "L'Irresistible" or the "Gossard" front-laced corset-the woman who appreciates elegance and beauty, cultivates grace, cherishes health, understands comfort and seeks contentment, will find all these and exrience the utmost satisfaction in her "L'Irresistible" or in her "Gossard."
"They lace in front."

Will Engage in Newspaper Business at Preston.

Watkin L. Roe, who has been connected with The Herald for several years, left last evening for Preston, Ida., where he will engage in the newspaper business. Mr. Roe has acquired an interest in the Cache Valley News; published in Preston, and will assume charge of its mechanical and editorial departments. His partner. J. David Larson, will attend to the business end of the paper. Preston has a good newspaper field tributary to it and Mr. Roe's friends expect him to make the News a great success.

COYNE CASE IN U. S. COURT. The case of Patrick Coyne against the Southern Pacific railroad was transerred Thursday from the state courts to the United States court. In this suit Coyne seeks judgment in the sum of $10,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by him while at work on a tunnel at Palihim while at work on a tunnel at Pali-sade, Nev., Aug. 31, 1906.

mond Can Remain in His Possession Until Owen Appears.

Judge J. J. Whitaker, of the city court,

His d to ston to ston to search a room in company with Sergeant Hempel of the police, force in an effort to discover some trace of stolen goods, with which the disappearance of one of the hotel bell boys was thought to be connected. Woods came across a diamond fastened to the under side of the bed, which, however, was no part of the goods the two were on the lookout for. Chief Sheets took charge of the stone, but Woods considered it to be his property inasmuch as the owner did not materialize. Judge Whitaker, however, was of another opinion and in handing down his decision took the ground that the police department has a right to keep the stone until the real owner appears.

TRANSFER CHANGES.

Street Railway Company Will Give Its Patrons More Privileges.

The street railway company will next week put into effect changes in its method of issuing transfers to passengers that will enable the latter to ride on any cars going out over the line they wish to use. Heretofore the conductor asked the passenger what particular car he wished to take and punched the transfer for that car and line only. Thus, if a passenger from the Oregon Short Line depot wished to go out East South Temple, street any distance, the transfer would read "East South Temple." Of all the cars that run out East South Temple the one marked "East South Temple" would be the only one that could be taken. Under the new rules the conductor will punch upon the transfer the name of the line from which the passenger transfers and it will be good for passage on any car on all lines intersecting the point where the passenger transfers.

Passengers cannot, however, transfer to parallel lines.

THE HEALTHY STOMACH

We Never Know We Have a Stomach Unless Something Is Wrong With It.

When you begin to realize that you have a stomach, it means that this organ is not in good condition, and it is reminding you of the fact.

Do not feel discouraged and miserable because of the presence of indigestion. It is the best thing in the world for you if you can only see it and give the stomach proper treatment.

Change the weak stomach to a healthy one by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets. This remedy is not a mere digestive, giving only temporary relief, but a combination of remedies that actually strengthen the stomach, excite the secretion of gastric juices and en-able the digestive organs to care for food you eat in a natural, normal way. By taking a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal you can enjoy a good din-ner without distress and suffering, and you will never know that you have a stomach.

F. C. Schramm has sold a good many 50c boxes of Mi-o-na stomach tablets, and the more the remedy is used, the more friends it has, for every box gives satisfaction. It is sold under an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded should Mi-o-na fall to give satisfaction. F. C. Schramm takes all the risk, and the remedy will cost you nothing unless it cures.

olock.

In addition to the lights on the trolley poles the proposed measure provides for a special light pole on each side of the street, half way between the trolley poles, these poles to carry eight sixteen candle power lights and two thirty-two candle power lights. If the proposed ordinance is passed this illumination will extend from South Temple to Fifth South on Main street. The move has the support of the street railway company and property owners in the district affected. A majority of the members of the council are said to be in favor of the improvement.

More Improvements Talked Of. More improvements Talked Of.

The Kelsey plan of widening the side-walks on Main street from South Temple to Fourth South street, which is a part of the general scheme for the improvement of Main street, will be discussed in an open meeting of the council mext Monday night. This plan if adopted will widen the sidewalks on each side of Main street six feet, so that the curb will be rext to the asphalt, and abolish the unsightly cobblestones.

All property owners interested are requested to be present at this meeting of the council and express their views on the projected improvements.

The judges also praised the excellent material in Miss Nora Wanless' speech, "A Tribute to American Historians." Mrs. Kinney, president of the D. A. R. presented the medal after congratulating all the girls taking part. She said that they had all shown themselves to be true daughters of America. The medal was engraved, "Spirit of Liberty Chapter," with the figure of an old-fashioned spinning wheel.

Roy Coates' subject was: "Our Country, Right or Wrong." The judges, Frank Berce, Dr. E. D. Woodruff and Russel L. Tracy, reported that they had had some trouble in deciding between Roy Coates and Lester Moreton, the only other boy contestant, but had finally decided upon the former. The medal was a gold shield with gold, white and blue stripes enameled upon it. Mr. Pierce, who presented it, congratulated both boys upon their good work and explained the significance of the colors.
